Beautiful Bali Cooking School Tour 2011

We had such a wonderful time in Bali on our Food Tour & would like to thank the wonderful new friends we made along the way. The people, the culture, the food and the scenery was magical in every way and we enjoyed a lot of eating & learning to create new dishes that we have now introduced into our everyday cooking. The food markets left us wide eyed as we tasted new fruits and vegetables & smelt the delicious spices that lay in massive baskets or clay pots. We learned how to barter for our fresh fish & seafood & now wish we had these markets down the road from our Brisbane home. The down hill mountain biking was a personal favourite... especially when I got too tired & simply dropped my bike on the side of the road & jumped in the car for an air conditioned journey to the end. There was plenty of time to relax by the pool, shop for beautiful clothing, have new leather handbags made as well as cook, cook & cook – the real reason for joining the Bali Food Tour. I just can't wait for next year's Bali Cooking School & to make more lifelong friends.

Christmas Gift suggestions...

It's a scary thought, but... Christmas is just around the corner – would you believe only 14 weeks?

Grass Tree Kitchen would like to take the "scary" out of your lead up to the silly season. Why not buy a Cooking Class Gift Voucher & GTK cook book for those special people in your life? The best part is, they will want to show off their new found cooking skills and they will need a taste test guinea pig!

Grass Tree Kitchen was nominated for the 2011 Quest Business Achiever Awards under the Tuition, Training & Recreational Programs category, against

This award was achieved as a direct result of the support you have given our business and is recognition that we are providing an outstanding product and sensational service.

Thank you to everyone who voted for us - we look forward to your continued support and sharing another amazing year with you.
